A Family-Friendly Neighborhood Art Event

FREE ADMISSION — START ANYWHERE

Details: www.nagleepark.org/npos

- Some History of Naglee Park:
- Naglee Park is the former estate of California pioneer Brigadier General Henry Morris Naglee and is considered to be the first modern subdivision in Santa Clara County.
 - The neighborhood has been restored to its earlier glory by the hard work of neighbors and the Campus Community Association.
 - The House of Bagels on E. San Carlos and S. 11th Street offers brunch or treats and good coffee.
 - Bring a lunch and picnic in William Street Park at William and S. 16th Street
 - Enjoy the varied architectural styles in the mix of Craftsman, Victorian, Spanish Revival and Prairie-style homes.
 - You can walk by the Naglee Mansion, once the home of General Naglee, on the northwest corner of E. San Fernando and 14th Streets.
- While Visiting Naglee Park:
- This free event goals aims to: Display and sell local art
 - Encourage community participation
 - Showcase our art friendly neighborhood
